

As a technical service provider, we of course have a powerful assembly service. Professionals with superior qualifications and experience, coupled with excellent an engineer on-site support, guarantee an efficient order. Again, our core competencies of lead both in electrical engineering, as well as for machinery / equipment / steel to synergy benefits from those of the customer.

The performance evidence come to our installation teams in the following areas:

- assembly planning, construction management, site coordination

- Installation of low and medium voltage equipment

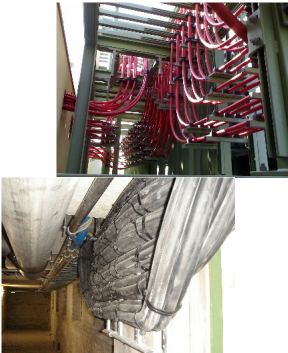

- Supply and installation of transformers and transformer performance frameworks

- Supply, installation and connection of low and high voltage cables, instrumentation cables

- Cable run finishings, cable racks

- Pipeline

- Mechanical finishing of monitoring stations
- Lieferung und Montage industrieller Meßtechnik
- Implementation of necessary site inspections and pre-test

Everything from one source is an attribute that is valued by clients especially

Our contact person for you: □

Markus Grude